NSW State Directors Report:

Gary thanked Macquarie Towns for opening their clubhouse for the DC meeting and the helpers for organising and cooking the BBQ.

Gary read out the letter from Darren Abela re questions to NCC and Head Office and also the answers Gary was able to supply and the other questions will be submitted next NCC phone hook up.

WA Director Wayne has stepped down from the role with State Secretary position now open as well.

Correspondence received via head office re Sydney Motorsports Park car show to be held in February in conjunction with Super Cars, Gary spoke to lady from Super Cars and advised request being too late as NSW in middle of car show season also the request involved having your car locked in all day until event finished.

DC zoom meeting trial still looking to commence in March 2025.

2025 Meeting calendar going back to 1st Friday each month except January & October with no meeting in February.

Sydney basin clubs, 3 have not attended DC meetings for number years, East Coast Australia, Pig Island and Rodders Inc and 2 clubs only attended 2 meetings in 2024, Nostalgia Rodders and Cruizin Rodz & Customs.

Gary to contact these clubs and advise outcomes.

Event Reports: Nil to report, general discussion from the floor on Summer Nats held in Canberra

General Business:

1. 3 sanctions were tabled and approved
2. Nationals Bendigo numbers now up to 900 plus
3. General discussion from the floor on how to get new blood into street rodding and clubs, eg school visits, more opportunities at car shows getting kids in cars for photos. An active club would appear to be a starting point
4. General discussion from members on correspondence to head office not receiving acknowledgement or a response over the years
5. Discussion on coffee and cars competing more and more with hot rod car shows

Meeting closed 11.55 am then followed by BBQ and mini car show

Next meeting Friday - 7th March 2025 at 8.00 pm

Thank you to Macquarie Towns HRC for the use of your clubroom.
